The speaker wonders where the sun goes in the night. Does it go to sleep, does it hide, or does it turn around and become the moon? The speaker wants to know if the sun also needs to rest and whether it has a home to go to at the end of the day. Maybe the sun just floats around from one city to another. The speaker believes that since the earth is round, the sun keeps going from one city to another spreading sunshine everywhere.

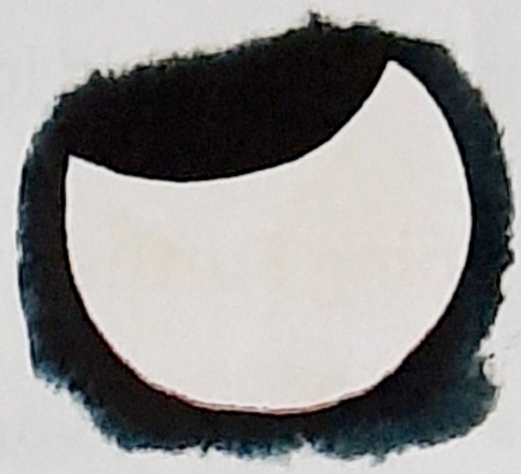
Understanding the Poem

Answer these questions.

1. Tick (✓) the correct sentences.

   The speaker thinks that the sun

   a. sleeps at night. ☑
   b. hides behind the hills. ☑
   c. becomes the moon in the night. ☑
   d. hides behind the clouds at night. ☐
   e. goes back to its home to sleep. ☑
   f. hides in the forests. ☐
   g. goes around the earth. ☑



2. What does the speaker think the moon is?
3. According to the speaker, what is the sun's hiding place?
4. Why does the speaker wonder if the sun needs to rest?

Words in Use

>>> text-search for opposites

Find the opposites of these words in the poem.

1. wake up × _____
2. cooling × _____
3. inside × _____
4. quickly × _____

4-8-2020

Lesson- THE SUN

Answer these questions -

Q-2 What does the speaker think the moon is?

A-2 The speaker thinks that the moon is the other side of the sun.

Q-3 According to the speaker, what is the sun's hiding place?

A-3 According to the speaker, the sun hides behind the hills.

Q-4 Why does the speaker wonder if the sun needs to rest?

A-4 The speaker wonders if the sun needs to rest after spreading so much light and warmth all around the world.