

B Read the following conversation and circle the pronouns.

-  : Where are you going today?
-  : I am going to a circus.
-  : What a pretty frock you have worn!
-  : Thank you.
-  : Are you not going with your parents?
-  : No, they are not in town. I am going with my uncle and aunty.
-  : Is Pappu going with you?
-  : He has gone with my parents.
-  : Did you ask Meeta to come along with you?
-  : Yes, but she refused. Some of her relatives are coming over.

C Read the following paragraph carefully. Fill in the blanks with suitable pronouns.

Rekha is living with her father, mother and brother Chandu. They..... are going to Pinky's birthday party. Rekha is very happy as she..... can play with all her..... friends. So, she..... has bought a very beautiful gift for her..... Chandu is not happy because he..... was not given the toy. At last he..... played and celebrated the occasion.

D Fill in the blanks using the suitable pronouns. One has been done for you.

1. I have a pet dog.Its..... name is Jacky.
2. Sheela plays on the harmonium. She..... is good at singing.
3. Boys and girls are playing in the field. They... are feeling tired.

4. Mr Bose is a gentleman.He..... is never late in reaching his..... office.

✓ 5. The cow is a domestic animal. We get milk from her.....

6. Chandu has a robot. He..... works nicely.

E Use mine, her, hers, his, yours, theirs, his. One has been done for you.

1. Do you know? I am very worried today because I have lost the most expensive pen. That pen was not Ram's but mine.....

2. Shruti has many friends. One of her..... friends is not well.

3. They are the Guptas. This house is theirs.....

4. Anshul is very funny. His..... main aim is to make others laugh.

5. She is Dolly. This doll is hers.....

6. Raju is a good student. His..... father is a teacher.

7. Hari has completed his..... work.

8. Rajni has kept her..... books in the cupboard.

9. You are Pinku, I think this pen is yours.....

✓ 10. The pot you saw earlier was mine.....

