

Look at the following sentences:

1. I am writing a letter.
2. John is watering the plants.
3. The girls are singing a song.
4. Players are practising in the field.
5. Ravi and his grandmother are watching cartoons.

See the chart given below:

I am singing.

He is reading.

She is baking a cake.

It is a new scarf.

The horse is running.

You are reciting a poem.

They are playing football.

She and I are eating.

Boys are making fun.

Girls are gathering flowers.

Komal and Vineeta are playing.

A Fill in the blanks using suitable words from the box given below (is/am/are+..ing)

do play chop read bark

1. Mr Bose is reading a newspaper.

2. Shalu is doing her home-work.
3. The dog is barking at Mohan.
4. Tanuj and Harish are playing chess.
5. Aman is chopping vegetables.

Use the words am learning, is learning, are learning.

1. Ravi and I are learning English.
2. Sabita is learning English.
3. We are learning English.
4. They are learning English.
5. Pinky and Sweety are learning English.

Fill in the blanks with the help of doing words given below: (Use is, am, are + .ing)

ask carry talk wait drink read

We are at the railway platform. My father, mother and I are waiting for the train. An old man is drinking tea. My neighbour Mr Kohli is reading a newspaper. A boy is asking about the arrival of the train. Girls are talking to each other. The people are carrying the luggage on their shoulders and heads.

