

A. Some words are given below. Put them in the proper columns.

brother bull vixen pencil bucket almirah princess uncle sister cow wall queen doe book prince drawer bag fox
 king aunt ink-pot

1. Masculine: Brother, Bull, Uncle, Prince, Fox, King
2. Feminine: Vixen, Princess, Sister, Cow, Queen, Doe, Aunt
3. Neuter: Pencil, Bucket, Almirah, Wall, Book, Drawer, Bag, Ink-pot

B. Look at the following sentences. Change the genders of the underlined words (nouns) and re-write the sentences. (You can choose the words from the box) The words can be repeated.

woman vixen bulls father landlady tigress aunt daughter grandson maid peahen niece manageress

1. My sister is talking to my niece.

For example: My brother is talking to my nephew.

2. The man was looking at the picture.

The woman was looking at the picture.

3. I saw a fox in the jungle.

I saw a vixen in the jungle.

4. Ravi was feeding the cows.

Ravi was feeding the bulls.

5. Uncle is giving a parcel to Matthew.

Aunt is giving a parcel to Matthew.

6. Our landlord is a kind man.

Our landlady is a kind woman.

7. William saw a tiger yesterday.

William saw a tiguess yesterday.

8. Son is giving a gift to his mother.

Daughtee is giving a gift to her father.

9. Have you ever seen a tiger?

Have you ever seen a tiguess.

10. Danial's son and granddaughter are going to the market.

Daniial's daughtee and grandson are going to the market.

11. The old man is telling a story to his granddaughter.

The old woman is telling a story to her grandson.

12. Have you seen our servant anywhere?

Have you seen our maid anywhere?

13. On my way to school, I saw a peacock.

On my way to school, I saw a peahen.

14. The girl is looking happy.

The boy is looking happy.

15. Mr Phillips is our manager.

Mrs Phillips is our manageress.