

Summing Up

God has made everyone different. He has given certain characteristics to different groups of plants and animals. We must understand that there is a purpose behind it. We should have faith in God and be happy with whatever He has given to us. We must learn to do good and make ourselves worthy of Lord's love.

I. Answer the following questions :

1. Why was the monkey cribbing?

The monkey was cribbing because he was not happy with his appearance.

2. What did the fairy tell to the monkey?

The fairy told the monkey not to be scared.

3. What did the monkey ask for?

The monkey asked for a trunk, a long neck and feathers.

4. Why were the other monkeys scared of him?

The other monkeys got scared because they thought that it was a monster.

5. What did the monkey request to the fairy?

The monkey requested fairy to make him as he was before.

II. Tick (✓) the right answer:

1. The monkey lived in a forest/village. ✓
2. The witch/fairy helped the monkey.

3. The monkey had trunk like an elephant/ giraffe.
4. The giraffe has a long/short neck.
5. The other monkeys were happy/scared to see him.

III. Draw the picture of how the monkey looked, when he was granted all that he wanted from the fairy.

IV. Time to Think

Think of a situation in which you were sad. What was the reason and how did you become happy?

V. Let's Do

Draw or paste the following :

Activities that make kids happy	Activities that make kids sad

VI. Group Discussion

Discuss the following topic in the class— 'Happiness in all situations make life beautiful'.